PRACTICE SUMMARY

Mr. Kozuch has extensive experience litigating intellectual property matters and has been lead counsel in jury trials, bench trials, and hearings in cases involving patent infringement, trademark infringement, misappropriation of trade secrets, breach of non-competition agreements, and breach of technology service contracts.

He also counsels clients on all aspects of intellectual property law, prosecutes U.S. and international patent applications in the area of mechanical engineering, and provides opinions, including patentability, infringement/non-infringement, and validity opinions.

Prior to practicing law, Mr. Kozuch worked in engineering, strategic planning, and financial analysis for several Fortune 500 companies, including major energy and chemicals companies. He has been a licensed Professional Engineer in Pennsylvania since 1977 and is a member of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers (ASME).

With his experience and education in engineering and business (MBA), Mr. Kozuch works well with inventors, in-house counsel, and management in developing business strategies for managing their intellectual property assets, as well as with technical experts and economic damages experts in the litigation arena.
