Michael Berkowitz Elected To Philadelphia Bar Association Board of Governors

Philadelphia Pa. December 11, 2007.

Michael J. Berkowitz, a Partner in the Intellectual Property law firm of Caesar, Rivise, Bernstein, Cohen & Pokotilow, Ltd. has been elected to the Board of Governors of the Philadelphia Bar Association. His three-year term will commence in January 2008.

The 13,000-member Philadelphia Bar Association, founded in 1802, is America's first chartered metropolitan bar association and Pennsylvania's largest local bar association. As such, attorneys, judges, politicians and non-lawyers look to the Philadelphia Bar Association for professional support, guidance on legal issues, and general information.

Michael is a registered patent attorney whose practice focuses on all aspects of intellectual property law including patent and trademark prosecution, litigation (Abbreviated New Drug Applications under the Hatch Waxman Act), licensing and client counseling. Michael is the immediate past Chancellor of the Louis D. Brandeis Law Society. In addition, he co-chairs the Philadelphia Bar Association's Intellectual Property Committee and serves on its Israel Exchange Committee. In addition, he is a co-Director of the Philadelphia Bar Association Charity Run and a member of the Calendar Committee of The Historical Society of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. A graduate of Lehigh University (B.S. 1984 in Industrial Engineering), Michael received his law degree in 1991 from Widener University School of Law. Before becoming an attorney, Mr. Berkowitz worked for five years as an engineer with the Space Systems Division of the General Electric Company.

With a proud heritage spanning almost 80 years, Caesar, Rivise, Bernstein, Cohen & Pokotilow is recognized as a leading intellectual property law firm. The firm has been called upon to obtain thousands of US and international patents and trademarks and act as lead counsel in hundreds of trials and appeals throughout the United States.
